10:00am – 11:15am Panel 1: The Evolution of Brand Protection – Where do we go from here? (Grand Ballroom)
Like most aspects of life and business, the brand protection field was significantly impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Changes in customer shopping behavior, manufacturing restrictions, supply chain disruptions, internal budgets and human resources reductions, travel limitations, among other factors necessitated significant modifications to brand protection processes and structures. Speakers from government, brands, service providers and platforms will share their experiences in how they adapted to the pandemic, with an emphasis on what aspects will endure beyond the pandemic and how the brand protection community can prepare for the future.

Moderator:  Dawn Atlas, Vice President, Enforcement and Assistant General Counsel, Calvin Klein and IACC Chairperson

Speakers:
- Michael Ball, Assistant Director, National IPR Coordination Center
- Marcus Cohen, SVP, Counterfeit Investigations, RIAA
- Colette Durst, Chief Trademark Counsel, 3M

Concurrent Workshops

| 2:15pm to 3:15pm | BPE Track: Maximizing Brand Protection Actions with the National IPR Coordination Center (IPR Center) - (District Ballroom – Lower Level)

The IPR Center will be highlighting its recent work with the pharmaceutical and medical device communities. They will be discussing their ongoing programs to support these business segments and how the government-private industry partnerships were critical to addressing the threat of counterfeits entering vital supply chains and marketplaces during the Covid-19 pandemic.

Moderator: Michael Ball, Assistant Director, National IPR Coordination Center

Speakers:
- Thomas Duffy, Section Chief-IPU, IPR Center

| 2:15pm to 3:15pm | SME Track: Brand Protection for SMEs – Overview (South Carolina Room – 2nd Floor)

This interactive workshop will be an overview session on the basics and key strategies for the beginnings of a brand protection program. Speakers will provide fundamental and budget friendly tips on how to kickstart a brand protection program. The session will also cover steps businesses should take to protect themselves from IP theft as well as set themselves up for enforcement actions if/when IP theft occurs.

Non-SMEs are welcome to attend. Companies or individuals at the nascent stages of their brand protection program or who simply want a refresher are welcome!

Moderator: Carrie Hedayati, Intellectual Property Counsel, 100% Speedlab
